OUT OF CORDOBA is a documentary film about the legacy of the Spanish city of Cordoba and its meaning for our times. The film explores the dramatic biographies of Averroes (Ibn Rushd) the Muslim, and Rabbi Moses Maimonides the Jew, the two leading personalities of medieval Islamic Spain, and its heritage of "convivencia" (religious coexistence). Filmed in the USA, Spain, Morocco, France, Italy, Egypt, Israel and Palestine, and 10 years in the making, the award-winning film explores contemporary relations between Muslims, Jews, and Christians, the revolts for human rights in the Middle East, the struggle against religious extremism and xenophobia.

A discussion with director Jacob Bender will follow the screening.
